ABOUT LA REUNION TX

LRTX IS IN THE BUSINESS OF SUSTAINING ARTISTS THROUGH INNOVATIVE OPPORTUNITIES. CURRENTLY WE ENGAGE A 35-ACRE WOODED SITE IN WEST OAK CLIFF AS OUR STUDIO AND GALLERY. IN THE LONG-TERM WE ARE CREATING AN ARTS RESIDENCY IN DALLAS THAT WILL PROVIDE LIVING AND WORKING SPACE FOR ARTISTS WORKING IN A VARIETY OF MEDIA FOR PERIODS RANGING FROM ONE WEEK TO ONE YEAR.

IN EXCHANGE FOR LIVE/WORK SPACE, ARTISTS WILL GIVE BACK TO THE COMMUNITY THROUGH PROGRAMS, EXHIBITS, PERFORMANCES, AND INSTALLATIONS. OUR RESIDENCY WILL BE AS GREEN AND OFF-GRID AS POSSIBLE, MODELING SUSTAINABLE LIVING. IN ADDITION, OUR BUSINESS PLAN HAS AN EYE TOWARD LONG-TERM SUSTAINABILITY NOT ONLY WITH OUR FACILITY, BUT ALSO WITH THE BOTTOM LINE. WE SEEK TO TRANSFORM OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH ART AND CREATE LASTING SOCIAL CHANGE IN DALLAS. LA REUNION TX IS A 501(C)3 NONPROFIT.

Last year, the popular La Reunion TX program Art Chicas added Art Chicos—extending the program that brings artists and high-school age students together in an extraordinary art-making experience to boys for the first time. The results were astounding. Sixteen high school boys worked with mentor artists to make site-based art that wowed visitors at our annual reception and opened imaginative doors to this underserved group.

Once again, LRTX is seeking Mentor Madres and Padres to support the coming together of teams of girls with woman artists—and teams of boys with male artists—to create art at our site in west Oak Cliff.

The program involves four Saturdays in October and November. The work will be created in full-day sessions, one for girls and one for boys, the second and third Saturdays. During lunch, a representative of the Dallas Art Dealers Association will speak to the students about careers in art. On the final Saturday, November 3, the artists and students will exhibit their work during a reception to which family, friends and LRTX supporters are invited.

In the previous five years of the program, teams have come from the Girl Scouts of Northeast Texas, the Deaf Action Center, Buckner, DISD, Uplift Education and Pegasus Charter School.

Your support helps fund stipends for each artist and materials for the teams. More importantly, it gives these students the opportunity to participate in an extraordinary art-making experience with a professional artist. We know from the past five years that Art Chicas and Art Chicos has changed lives and given participants a new outlook on art and artists.

As a financial supporter of this program, you will be an honored guest at the November 3rd reception and will be recognized, if you wish, in the La Reunion TX newsletter and social media. You are also very welcome to attend the workshops to spend a little time with both artists and students.
