To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to express my support and that of Sammons Center for the Arts for the Flora Lofts project, which would provide much-needed artist residences in the Dallas Arts District.

The proposed development is important, and deserves support, for several reasons. We have long been concerned that the artists who perform in the Arts District cannot afford to live in the Arts District. The development of affordable Live/Work space for artists in the heart of the Arts District would be of great benefit to the arts community and is a desirable solution to the problem.

The project would also help to animate the Arts District with residents who are also stakeholders. The addition of working artists to the creative environment can only enhance further development in the District.

This is the development the Dallas Arts District, downtown Dallas and the Dallas arts community have needed for many years. Many people have frequently expressed the need to fulfill the last critical element of the Sasaki Plan -- affordable housing for artists to complete the vision for the Arts District.

The Sammons Center for the Arts is strongly in support of Flora Lofts and requests that you give it your full support and move it forward to become a reality as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Joanna St. Angelo
